Present: Commissioner Lawrence, Commissioner Green, Port Accountant Carol Tripp, Harbormaster Daryll Trask

Call to Order 7:00pm

Commissioner Comments

Commissioner Lawrence said guest moorage and the E & F Dock project have officially started. He's hoping for a smooth transition. The same company who built the breakwater will be working on said project. The fuel dock is shut down, along with the pump out. Everyone will need to bear down for a bit during the construction. He reminded everyone that storms will start rolling in and to mind boats in preparation for the season.

Commissioner Green said fall festivities are kicking into gear in Poulsbo (Ghoulsbo, Poulsbo Film Festival, etc.). She encouraged everyone to get out and enjoy the fall weather, prepare boats for fall, and to enjoy the transition to a new season.

Public Comments

Aaron Wenholz, D Dock, asked Harbormaster Trask what the plan is for the title grid.

Jeff, Poulsbo resident, is mystified by the reservation system. He has boated a lot this season and observed reservations seven days a week with no problems. He doesn't understand why the Port has such a problem with setting up a reservation system everyone can use every day. The Port is missing out on a lot of revenue. A lot of people won't come to Poulsbo because they can't get a reservation. He thinks the topic needs to be a priority.

Poulsbo Boater's Association

The association gave their report.

Consent Agenda

Old Business Items

Reservation Policy

Harbormaster Trask has a rough draft in the works. The policy will include reservations 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, and up to one calendar year in advance. There will be a $10 nonrefundable reservation fee. Slips will be assigned throughout guest moorage by staff.

New Business Items

Commissioner Responses to Public Comments/Discussions

Commissioner Lawrence reflected the reservation policy was discussed, and a lot of policies are seeing changes. Things are changing. Things might go one way for a bit, then back to the other. Things are getting fine-tuned, and they don't happen overnight, especially being a government entity. There will be things people don't like, but the board is trying to work together. Sometimes the Commission agrees, sometimes not, but the board wants things to straighten out.

Commissioner Green said Harbormaster Trask will report more and touch more on the comments that the PBA had during the Manager's Report.

Draft 2025 Budget

Please see attached.

Accounting Report

Port Accountant Tripp didn't have an official report. She did previously send to the board the summary financial statements through August 31st. There was a net gain of $107,492.56, and a YTD net gain of $570,011.06. There was a substantial payout in August for the E & F Dock transformers in the amount of $115,851.15. The Port is currently in the middle of week two of the state audit and so far, things have gone well (knock on wood).

Manager Report

Please see attached.

Public Comments & Requests for Future Agenda Items

Shannon Glass, A Dock, dropped her August payment in the drop box on August 4th. Several days later she was assessed a late fee. The explanation given was the Port received her payment on the 9th. Another couple of weeks passed and she was charged an addition $50 late fee. She went in to speak with Hannah, who ran it up the management chain. Hannah was able to take the additional fees and credit them toward her next moorage payment. The problem she wanted to address was not having an updated moorage license agree that includes the language about the $50 fee. It's also not in the handbook regulations but was buried somewhere on the website. She feels like it's important to have more communication, as was mentioned in the PBA report. She was able to locate two emails from November and December of last year regarding payments due on the 5th. She didn't pay attention about the extended $50 fee and never asked about the updated license fee. She hopes the Port can do a better job of figuring out a system where licensees have acknowledgement of their payment that doesn't require making an appointment during office hours (when people are working) or paying online and incurring a fee because they paid online.

Aaron Wenholz complimented the proactivity of removing the dock that would have wound up on the beach, along with the two derelict boats that were towed away. He asked Commissioner Lawrence if he would address the question the PBA asked.

Port Accountant Tripp said Harbormaster Trask would mention the removal of the derelict vessels next week. She's familiar with Ms. Glass' situation, which will be corrected shortly. She said, regarding Mr. Mueller's question, that if washers and dryers are vandalized, the company will take care of the expenses with the caveat of reassessing whether or not the machines will stay at the Port if they're vandalized nine times in one year.

Nico Jensen, D Dock, addressed her questions to Harbormaster Trask. She wondered if, during the interview process, he will be looking for experience with customer service, boating, and maintenance. There has been trouble where employees didn't know how to do any of those things. It's less expensive to do those things in-house and not hiring out. It would also be good to hire someone not afraid to be outside and in the weather. In the past, employees have been inside most of the winter and not taking care of maintenance. She also asked if it's possible to put large signage out on the fuel dock; boats are coming in and don't know it's closed. Lastly, she asked if there's an empty slip on D Dock where dinghies can park.

Craig Mueller, C-11, was at the PBA meeting last night. He said the concerns from most members were about communication between Port staff and visitor moorage. The Port needs to work toward training employees to be nice and to communicate better. He suggested a short blurb of updates on the monthly bill, so everyone knows what's going on.

There was a public comment from someone on AA, who seconded the comment about communication. Most people feel like they don't know what's going on, and when something happens, they didn't know what to expect.

Loren, A Dock, said during the last meeting, someone in the audience asked when they were shutting down the fuel dock. The answer provided was, "We don't know but you'll be told ahead of time." Loren said he never received a notice ahead of time.

Commissioner Comments

Commissioner Green thanked everyone for their insight, comments, and observations for things the Commission doesn't see. She appreciates everybody's input. She's sure Harbormaster Trask took notes and she's sure he'll follow up. She encouraged everybody to stay safe out there and get ready for winter.

Commissioner Lawrence said the board had a basic idea of when construction would begin, and it's been talked about for quite a while. It's been a process that's been discussed since January. Did the board get a final date with a time? No; but the board was still in the process of figuring out a ballpark range, which was in September. He does like Craig's idea about updates provided on bills. A notice of change on the website is also a good idea. He said communication is something being worked on, from the physical elements to the staff. The Port does need someone with communication skills, willing to be out there, polite, and active. The Port is in the process of rebuilding. The Commission does listen and want things to be perfect today and tomorrow. He said the Commission appreciates everyone and this is why we're all here. He wants to be part of it and wishes things could change overnight. He thanked everyone for being in attendance.

DRAFT - 2025 Budget

Facility revenues will increase 6.026% from the previous year ("Port"). This is due to a rate increase for permanent moorage, parking monies collected and an increase in net fuel sales.

Liberty Park facility revenues will increase by 3.48% from the previous year. This is due to a rate increase and increasing 'Winter Moorage' slips available on 'F' Dock.

Interest income will be slightly reduced in 2025 as our reserves have been significantly reduced for the completion of the breakwater and partial completion of the 'E & F' Dock project.

The 'E & F' Dock project should be completed by mid-December. I do not expect final payment for this project to be made until sometime during the later part of the 1st quarter of 2025 (mainly the retainage portion). At this time the estimated expenses for the entire project are $954,736 (this total does not include any repairs to the City's bulkhead), RCO grant reimbursements of $548,000.00 which will leave a balance of approximately $406,736 to be paid out of reserves.

Overall, expenditures will increase by 18.1% compared to the previous year. There are increases in the following accounts:

Expense:	$ increase over previous year
Commissioner Comp	$3,902
Payroll Taxes	$13,200
Pension Matching	$5,000
Uniforms	$750
Office Expenses	$2,000
Janitorial Supplies	$1,500
Merchant Card Fees	$13,000
Liability Insurance	$66,239
Advertising	$5,000
Electricity	$11,000
Garbage, Sewer & Water	$500
Telephone	$1,000

Outside Services	$6,000
Training	$6,000
Miscellaneous	$500

The largest increases are:

- Liability Insurance ($66k)
- Payroll Taxes ($13.2k)
- Merchant Card Fees ($13k)

- Electricity ($11k)
- Maintenance ($21.5k)
- Excise Tax ($38.5k)
- Leasehold Excise Tax ($20k)

Liability Insurance now includes coverage for the breakwater (2023 rate - $27,268 -- Coverage for 2024 - $127,164). LET & Excise Tax increases are due to the projected revenue increase for fuel and all moorages.

The Port of Poulsbo has the 2nd highest tax levy in Kitsap County of $0.178632 per $1,000 of assessed value (the Port of Bremerton has the highest levy rate of $0.193189). In addition, the property tax levy is limited to increases of 1% annually on the taxing district's property tax levy (this is the constitutional limit, see RCW 84.55.0101). For 2024, this amount was $1,647 for an annual tax levy of $332,571. The Port of Poulsbo has no 'banking levy capacity.' Banked Levy capacity is a historical number of monies available when a taxing district levies less than the maximum amount and 'banks' those funds to use in the future. Currently, taxing levies make up 12% of the proposed 2025 budget. (See graph below)
